

For each fixed metal pair, every weighted descriptor is affine in the same molar fraction. Lines show geometry, not fitted mechanisms.